

ROCK - CREEPY OR CRAWLY LINKS – question sheet

Whether it be a creepy song or group or maybe mentions those crawly critters enjoy the tracks and get ready for some interesting (I hope) questions.

Ready? Sharpen your pencil and let the game begin!

Track 1:

A Who directed the film of the same name?

B Who produced this bands first three albums?

Track 2:

A What was the original name of this band?

B Their fans are called what?

Track 3:

A Name two famous covers.

B Can you name a 1978 biographical film in which he featured?

Track 4:

A On which of this bands albums did this track appear?

B This animal is easily trained, what can they be used to help with?

Track 5:

A What Grimms fairytale partly inspired this singer/songwriter to write this song

B Make a guess as to how many species there are of this critter. Closest gets the points

Track 6:

A Name a species of good slug. Clue there is a feline in its name

B What year did a feline character first appear in a famous comedy duo cartoon?

Track 7:

A Which 2018 BBC drama used this as the title track

B The Jesus and Mary Chain covered one of this songwriters tracks. Can you name it?

Track 8:

A What is the largest UK species of this critter?

B Woodstock featured this singer, which iconic song did she compose after Woodstock?

Track 9:

A This duo (engineer and composer) met at what famous music studio?

B One of the duo engineered a Pink Floyd album. Which one?

Track 10:

A Which country produced the first Godzilla film?

B A band of the same name had a keyboard player, what progressive rock band did he form?

Track 11:

A Name the French composer who wrote the film score with the same name as the band?

B What was this composers first album?

Track 12:

A The guitar pictured is an Epiphone. Which Jam guitarist also uses one?

B What style of guitar does Steve Hackett of Genesis favour?